

The Mission of Swift & Company

Swift & Company has become one of the large businesses of the world through continuing to meet the growing needs of a nation and a world.

Society has a right to ask how the increasing responsibilities and opportunities for usefulness which go with such growth are being used by the men who direct its affairs—and the men have the right to answer:

To promote the production of live stock and perishables and increase the food supply;

To reach more people with more and better meat;

To make a fair competitive profit, in order to reimburse the 25,000 shareholders for the use of their capital, and to provide for the future development of the business;

To reduce to a minimum the costs of preparing and distributing meat and to divide the benefits of efficiency with producer and consumer;

To live and let live, winning greater business only through greater usefulness, with injury to nothing but incompetency, inefficiency and waste; to deal justly, fairly, and frankly with all mankind.

These are the purposes and motives of the men who direct the policies and practices of Swift & Company.

Ford

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Ford cars have become such a world utility that it would almost seem as if every family ought to have its Ford car. Runabouts, Touring Car, Coupe, Sedan, (the two latter have enclosed bodies), and the Truck Chasses, have really become a part and parcel of human life. You want one because its service will be profitable for you. We solicit your order at once because, while production is limited, it will be first come, first supplied.

HOSTESS HOUSE FAMILY REUNION

How It Happened to Entertain Only A. E. F. Mother Who Visited Army of Occupation.

BIG CORPORAL DUTIFUL SON.

No Knightly Courtiers Ever Acted With More Gallantry to Lady Fair Than Did He and His Doughboy Pals to This Little White Haired Woman Dressed Exquisitely in Black.

By GRACE GOULDER.
(With the American Y. W. C. A. Overseas.)

Coblentz, Germany, March 28 (By Mail.)

It happened right here in Coblentz.

A big corporal came into the Y. W. C. A. Hostess House and asked for the director, Miss Ruth Woodsmall, who comes from Colorado Springs, Colo.

"Could my mother stay here?" he began at once, trying his best to cover his excitement.

"Your mother?" gasped Miss Woodsmall. "How did your mother ever get here?"

"Well, she isn't here yet, but if she comes will you keep her?"

"Of course I will, but—"

She didn't finish, for the boy had smashed his cap back on his head and was out of the door on a run.

The corporal's visit remained a mystery for two days. Then one evening just at dusk a little white haired woman dressed exquisitely in black appeared in the sitting room of the Hostess House, and the corporal was hovering behind her, trying to be beside her and back of her and in front of her all at once. He was carrying her coat—a big fur one. With them were three doughboys, pals of the corporal. They tried to keep in the background, but their eyes were glued on her face.

Everyone in the sitting room sat at attention. There are no English speaking men or women out of uniform in the Third Army area. Yet here was a woman in civilian clothes. Mothers are unheard of with the army. But this was a mother, everyone knew.

After awhile someone found out about this mother.

Had Been Interned During War.

She and her husband, who were born in Germany, but had been naturalized, lived in San Francisco. Before the war they left for Weisbaden, Germany, that their invalid daughter might have treatment at this famous health resort.

They brought their other children with them. One was Walter, a small boy, and the other was Ralph, now Corporal Stepp of the American Army.

When the war was declared they sent Ralph back to America, because he was of military age, and they did not want him to fight for the kaiser. Then America entered the war.

Mrs. Stepp—Mrs. Anna Stepp she is—told this part of the story:

"Until a month ago I hadn't heard from Ralph for two years and a half—even before America got in the war mail was held up. I didn't know whether he was in the army or not—but I was sure he was, because—well, because he is an American." Here she stopped a minute to snuffle up at him.

"After awhile we heard from some friends that he was in the army—and that he had come over here. That was all I ever knew. It's nearly five years since I have seen him!"

"Of course it was awfully hard—I couldn't get word to him and he couldn't to me. My husband used to tell me it wouldn't help Ralph any for me to cry. I tried not to—before the rest of them anyway. My daughter got worse steadily—she is no better. We couldn't get the proper food for her after awhile. And she hated to see me worried about Ralph, so I used to try to keep up before them."

"Last January my husband came to Coblentz about his citizen papers. An American soldier in Ralph's company who was in the office heard his name and asked him if he was any relation to Ralph. He didn't tell him Ralph was in Coblentz, but went after Ralph. He didn't tell Ralph his father was here. When they met they couldn't believe their eyes."

"Ever since then I have been trying to see Ralph. He couldn't come to Weisbaden because it was out of the American area, and I couldn't get through until today—more than two months."

"They asked her if her Ralph had changed much in all that time."

"Oh, yes—very much. But do you know, I think it is because all that long time when I didn't know where he was or how he was—I got in the habit of thinking of him—as he was when he was a baby—I kept seeing him as a baby and remembering the way he felt when he was little. Isn't that queer? And now look at him!"

And the corporal tried not to see the adoration in her eyes.

"Five years is a long time to wait to see your boy," she murmured, and kept her eyes on him. Again she had forgotten the people around her.

The corporal cleared his throat.

"This is why I asked you if you could keep my mother, Miss Woodsmall. I didn't want her to come unless she had a good place to stay. Ah, e—er—thanks awfully."

And that is the story of how the Hostess House happened to entertain the only known A. E. F. mother who has visited the Army of Occupation.

Land Sale.

Gamaliel Bank
VS
Phillip Crowder et al.

In Chancery Court At Gainesboro, Tennessee.

In obedience to a decree of the Chancery Court, at Gainesboro, made at the April Term, 1919, in the above styled case, I will, on Saturday the 12th day of July, 1919, at Gainesboro, Tenn., in front of the East door of the courthouse, sell to the highest and best bidder the property in said decree described, being a tract of land known as a part of the Dora L. Payne lands, lying and being in the 4th Civil District of Jackson County, Tennessee, adjoining lands of the widow Gaines and others, and described as follows:

Beginning at the head of a cave spring in front Gaines' residence on Hunting Creek, and running eastwardly up the hill to a rock or a stake is called for in the deed of S. A. Carver to Dora L. Payne, this making a conditional line from the spring to said rock or stake on the R. V. Brooks and Alex Hix line; thence with the old Carver line around the Hill with Phillip Crowder's line to the beginning, containing 8 acres, more or less.

Terms Of Sale

Sale will be made within legal hours for cash, to satisfy a judgement rendered against Phillip Crowder in favor of Gamaliel Bank, at the April term of this court, 1919, for $83.72 with interest and costs of the above styled cause. This 4th day of June, 1919.

W. F. Sadler, Clerk and Commissioner.

H. Grady Gore, Solicitor.

In Chancery Court At Gainesboro, Tenn.

It appearing from an affidavit filed in this cause that defendants, Robert Allen, Luther Jackson and Edgar Jackson are nonresidents of the State of Tennessee, and cannot be served with the ordinary process of law: It is ordered that said defendants enter their appearance herein, before the Clerk and Master, at his office in the courthouse in Gainesboro, Tenn., on or before the first Monday in July, 1919, next, and plead, answer, or demur to complainant's bill, amended and supplemental bill, or amendment to original bill, or the same will be taken for confessed as to them, and set for hearing ex parte; and that a copy of this order be published for consecutive weeks in the Jackson County Sentinel, a newspaper published in Gainesboro, Tenn.

This 2nd day of June, 1919.

W. F. Sadler, Clerk and Master.

HANDS, ARMS, LIMBS ASLEEP

And Was Run-Down, Weak and Nervous, Says Florida Lady. Five Bottles of Cardui Made Her Well.

Kathleen, Fla.—Mrs. Dallas Prine, of this place, says: "After the birth of my last child... I got very much run-down and weakened, so much that I could hardly do anything at all. I was so awfully nervous that I could scarcely endure the least noise. My condition was getting worse all the time..."

"I knew I must have some relief or I would soon be in the bed and in a serious condition for I felt so badly and was so nervous and weak I could hardly live. My husband asked Dr. —about my taking Cardui. He said, 'It's a good medicine, and good for that trouble', so he got me 5 bottles. After about the second bottle I felt greatly improved... before taking it my limbs and hands and arms would go to sleep. After taking it, however, this poor circulation disappeared. My strength came back to me and I was soon on the road to health. After the use of about 5 bottles, I could do all my house-work and attend to my six children besides."

"You can feel safe in giving Cardui a thorough trial for your troubles. It contains no harmful or habit-forming drugs, but is composed of mild, vegetable, medicinal ingredients with no bad after-effects. Thousands of women have voluntarily written, telling of the good Cardui has done them. It should help you, too. Try it."

months, that my Single Strength enough to test any of my Indian Liniment failed to relieve her. Out of the many hundred bottles I have sold, that is not so bad. Our Lord and Master didn't please every body, and I can't expect to. But here is my proposition to you—After you have tried my liniment for any trouble you may have and it fails to check, or lull your pains, return your bottle and get your money back.
